1. On 5 April 1957 Mr. Robert M. Macy, Chief, International Division, Bureau of the Budget, telephoned to say that following his telephone conversation with Mr. Dulles on 4 April (reference b.) he had apprised Mr. Brundage of the discussion and that Mr. Brundage had said that he would like very much to be briefed by CIA soon after Mr. Dulles' return. Mr. Macy also indicated that his staff was compiling some personnel statistics concerning CIA for Mr. Brundage to use in preparing himself for the meeting.

2. I expressed my pleasure that Mr. Brundage was going to give us this opportunity and told Mr. Macy that I would set up something with Mr. Dulles and get in touch with him early next week.
